

Security Charge (as of 1 January 2016)

Whereas the Government has not yet published the decree law that regulates the amount of the 2016 security charge at ANA airports, and whereas the Government requested on 30 December 2015 some additional information from ANA, we hereby inform our clients that the existing security charge in force of €2.50 per departing passenger will continue to be applied at all ANA airports.